

She obtained her diploma in biomedical sciences - master neurology - at Ghent University in 2017.

Since early 2018 she works for the Medical Center for knee and hip surgery in Sint-Martens-Latem.

Her job is to support and coordinate clinical studies as a scientific employee.

Jolien loves to play badminton and likes to spend her free time with her partner and friends.